A minimalistic furniture collection with character

Swell is a minimalistic furniture collection with a playful, light-hearted feel designed by the Swedish designer Jonas Wagell. The collection comprises a welcoming armchair and a variety of 10 different sofa modules, enabling any desired configuration of the distinctly plump design.

The Scandinavian simplicity of the design is accentuated by a stringent design without unnecessary details. Despite this, Swell oozes with character and personality and its soft, curved shapes makes it both inviting and provides a fantastic sitting comfort.

Jonas Wagell says: "I've always been fascinated by minimalism, but I like to add a warm and personal touch to the products. I have taken the aesthetic and practical qualities that I prefer in furniture for the living room as a reference point, and in this way, Swell very much reflects my own personal taste and style".

The name Swell is a reference to rising bread with its full shape, consisting of a robust padded back and seat and two curvy armrests. The stitching on the back and the seats divides the sofas into sections and completes the feel.
