

Piaf

design Bernard Vuarnesson

The table, a protagonist of the living area, must – every day more – adapt itself to ever diminishing dwelling spaces. Piaf is the solution to this requirement. Characterized by an essential and flexible design, it extends itself by the simple movement of the legs and top, a sign of conviviality.

